

There are so many special events and worship services happening during December at both East & West St. Olaf churches—so please just click on the link for the December newsletter and you will be able to see the information about all of the events. Thank you!

Have a blessed Advent and Christmas season!

